

WED. NOVEMBER 1ST
YOU ARE INVITED TO
a private opening reception for the Russian Arts Festival, Mending Fences
AT GALLERY5

Wednesday, November 1, 2006,

Gallery5, in cooperation with The Eurasia Center, invites you to meet the Ambassadors of Russia & Belarus, and their key staff members, at a private reception in their honor to celebrate the opening of Gallery5's latest exhibit:

Mending Fences, a month-long festival of Russian Arts, Culture, History, Religion, Politics and Trade Development.

Join the Ambassadors, His Excellency Yuri Ushakov of Russia, and His Excellency Mikhail Khvostov of Belarus, and discuss the many trade opportunities available between Virginia businesses and these great nations.

5:45 One-on-One with the Ambassadors.

6:30 Ambassadors' presentations addressing the importance of maintaining healthy relationships between U.S., Belarus & Russia.

7:00 Reception featuring traditional Russian foods & beverages.

For your viewing pleasure, Gallery5 will feature:

Traditional & Contemporary works from The Russian Art Project of Maryland, Russian WW2 Film & Photography on loan from the Russian Cultural Center, Iconographic works from the Russian Orthodox Church, Cold War Soviet and U.S. Propaganda on loan from the Cold War and Spy Museums, and numerous other Russian art installations.
